

MARYLAND TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION (TEDCO)
FEDERAL LABORATORY PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM PRESENTS

PERSONAL PROTECTIVE TECHNOLOGIES

CONFERENCE CENTER EDGEWOOD AREA
Aberdeen Proving Ground • Edgewood, MD
Tuesday, March 8, 2005 • 8:00 a.m.– 2:30 p.m.

A TEDCO Technology Transfer Showcase at APG
Featuring Personal Protective Technologies

5575 Sterrett Place
Suite 240
Columbia, MD 21044

FIRST CLASS
PRESORT
US POSTAGE
PAID
PERMIT #1
BALTIMORE, MD

OUR SOLDIERS HAVE THE BEST IN PROTECTION, NOW SO CAN YOU.

Attendees will learn about:

- Cutting edge research and technologies with commercial applications
- State and other funding programs for technology development
- Accessing Aberdeen Proving Ground resources and expertise

Examples of technology and resources available:

- Capabilities for modeling and simulation of personal protection
- Material property testing
- Precise identification of pathogens and vector host species
- Training for medical emergency personnel by APG
- Realistic assessment of protective mask lens performance

Location:

Conference Center Edgewood Area
Aberdeen Proving Ground • Edgewood, MD 21005

Register online by Tuesday, March 1, 2005 by visiting
www.gbtechcouncil.org/events/tedco.asp or call 410-327-9148 ext. #4

Cost: $40 per person

Visit www.marylandtedco.org for complete schedule, presentation and registration information. For program information, contact Ron Kaese at 410-715-4170 or rkaese@marylandtedco.org.

